After making a coffee stop en-route, we will make our way to Stamford, Lincolnshire. Stamford is an interesting town on the River Welland. It has many 17th and 18th Century Stone Buildings and older timber-framed buildings, many of which are listed. The town is frequently used as a film location and has been used in Pride and Prejudice, The Da Vinci Code and The Golden Bowl. The town centre has several traffic-free streets with many independent boutique shops, gift shops and eateries. I am sure you will find a lovely place for lunch in this historic town.

In the afternoon we will have a Cream Tea Cruise on Rutland Water. By surface area, Rutland Water is the largest reservoir in England. It is filled by pumping from the River Nene and River Welland. It provides a biological site of special scientific interest for the conservation of nature and wild birds. It is also a centre for water sports and visitors can enjoy fishing and bird watching. The more active can enjoy walking or cycling along the 25 miles of perimeter track. We will be taking a leisurely cruise with a cream tea!

The cost is £40 per person, which includes Coach, Cruise on Rutland Water with a Cream Tea and Gratuities.
